

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:10; sunset, 4:55.

Con men got $700 from Martin Svarney, 1936 Jefferson.

City Prosecutor Miller filed suit against Henry Krug of Krug Coal & Building Supply Co., charging short weight in coal deliveries.

Several firms filed complaints of overcharge against Commonwealth Edison Co.

Ten men, arrested in raid on 205 E. 16th, held to grand jury on robbery charges.

Denis Maher, policeman, filed bankruptcy petition. $1,039 liabilities; $308 assets. Owes former wife $150 alimony.

Fifteen members of Chicago Switchboard Manufacturers' ass'n and four union business agents on trial before Federal Judge Humphrey. Charged with violating Sherman anti-trust act.

American Ambulance Corps of France to open Chicago office to select 40 recruits.

Sherman Baker, negro, hit by bowling pin in quarrel with another negro. Skull fractured. Assailant fled.

Paul Shalpa, 685 Milwaukee av., held to grand jury on charges of 10-year-old girl.

Jas. C. Gilmer, accountant, charged with cruelty in divorce suit of Hazel Gilmer, 4504 W. Jackson blvd.

Students at Northwestern law school will be dismissed for failure in more than one study.

John H. Gleben, contractor, 3511 Melrose, begged judge to send him to Bridewell when wife had him arrested for non-support 27th time. Case continued.

Co-eds at Willard hall, Northwestern Univ., under examination for scarlet fever.

W. H. Clarkson, negro militiaman, arrested on charge of assaulting two women, Mrs. D. L. Crooks, 247 N.oman av., and Mrs. Stella Stafford, 44 Fulton.

Mrs. Annie Dollie Ledgerwood Matters re-opened fight to get custody of "Baby Irene," awarded to Margaret Ryan.

W. H. Herse, conductor, 4712 Belle Plaine av., killed in street car crash.

New potatoes, $6 a bushel, made their appearance in Aurora.

Three boy holdups got $51 from Mrs. Anna Friedman's feed store, 1124 Larrabee.

Anti-Cruelty society installed machine to electrocute stray cats and dogs.

Twins born to wife of Det. Serg't Jos. Beutel, Maxwell st. station.

Rob Roy Ricketts, art dealer, to undergo sanity test tomorrow.

Auto bandits held up Herman W. Buy, 2829 Logan blvd.; John Tersip, 523 N. Spaulding av.; Jacob Salk, 1134 W. 12th, and G. C. McCarthy, 3055 Washington blvd. Got $65 in all.

Three hurt by falls on icy sidewalks.

Bessie Reynolds, 1525 E. 65th, who says she is university graduate, arrested on charge of taking gold watch from Bessie Vradiah, Oak Park.

Rev. T. P. Bena, Argo, complained to Sheriff Traeger that gambling flourished in Summit.

Kenyon G. Peterson, brought back from Los Angeles, identified as hold-up man by Wm. Gaughran, Ravenswood station agent, Chicago & Northwestern.

Would-be hold-up men frightened away by employees of Casey-Hudson Co., 226 W. Ontario.

Fire attacked Douglas Storage, Van and Express Co., 4043 W. 12th; $25,000 damage. Seven auto trucks destroyed.

Peter Gentleman arrested as pick-pocket suspect.

Police dep't given $6,000 for purchase of autos to chase bandits.

$100,000 damage caused by fire at Valentine-Staver Co., furniture manufacturers, 1721-41 Sedgwick.